

FAR REACHING MINISTRIES

TEN THOUSAND YEARS ON THE OTHER SIDE OF ETERNITY

I landed in country on the 21st of June to look at property for our Home for Orphan Mothers' project. I loved being back in the area, even if it was only for nine days. On my first night in country, I met with several missionaries for dinner. It was a great time of fellowship with good food. I easily slipped into a deep sleep because I felt like I was home. The next morning, my wife, Vicky, called. I knew from her tone she had bad news. She said, "I am sorry to tell you that Nubian Chaplain Justin Kujali has lost his life." Justin is a modern day mighty man of valor; in our corps of over 500 men, Justin is one of the top ten. He labored fearlessly and faithfully alongside the leadership of our Nubian Corps in the most dangerous areas. The commanding general of the Nubian Army, Jagot, personally attended the funeral.

LET'S ASK OURSELVES, "WILL THE THINGS I INVEST
MY HEART, TIME AND MONEY IN,
WILL THEY MATTER
TEN THOUSAND YEARS ON THE OTHER SIDE OF ETERNITY?"

Justin was loved by his fellow chaplains, the thousands of soldiers he ministered to and by a huge civilian population. He was the kind of man who took every opportunity to show the love of Jesus in word and in deed.

Justin only knew ten years of peace in his brief but full forty-year lifespan. He never shrank back from physical or spiritual battles. His decision to follow Christ cost him his earthly family who were Muslims; they immediately and violently disowned him. This chosen vessel for Christ did as Christ commanded—he left everything behind for the sake of the Gospel and he never looked back. Sadly, Justin never saw his earthly family again, but he counted their rejection as his acceptable service to please his Savior and never ceased to pray for their salvation. The following day Vicky called me again, this time she said, “Honey, I am so sorry to call you again, but Chaplain Charles Kenyi has also lost his life.” At that moment, I just felt numb knowing the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh members of our staff had made their final journey to the Kingdom of Heaven. While I am very aware that they are receiving their just reward, it is still difficult to lose men you love. I take comfort knowing all their sorrows have been washed away and the saints are welcoming them with unspeakable joy. These men never lived for the treasures of this life; eternity was blazing upon their hearts and every area of their lives demonstrated it. The Apostle Paul said, “But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.” Justin and Kenyi lived in such a way that their lives said the exact same thing. We, too, need to live for the things of eternity—the things that truly matter. Let’s ask ourselves, “Will the things I invest my heart, time and money in, will they matter ten thousand years on the other side of eternity?”

Below are Justin and Kenyi’s testimonies. They are men, just like we are, but God’s Spirit ruled and reigned in and through them. Let Him rule and reign in you, too. Time is short and we must make the most of what we have left.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHAPLAIN JUSTIN MARGANY KUJALI

AREA OF DEPLOYMENT: NUBA MOUNTAINS

I was born in Khartoum to a Muslim family. I thought all religions were the same, in that they gave glory to the same God. I began Islamic school in 1981 and for the next four years, I lived with an Arab family who practiced Islam.

I was taught that Christians could not go to heaven because they were not circumcised and that they were very unclean.

I asked a Christian why he thought that he would go to heaven. He answered, “The Bible says that if you believe in God with all of your mind and heart, you will enter the Kingdom of Heaven.” His answer made me believe that he was telling the truth.

In 1989, I joined the SPLA. I began going to church.

I realized that I was a sinner, and the only wisdom that I had was worldly. I learned that our Almighty-Heavenly Father sent His only Son to die for our sins and through His wonderful power, God changed my heart from darkness to light. I pray that God will fill me with spiritual knowledge and protect me in His grace. I desire to teach others of the Truth. I also pray that the world will know the truth about the fighting in Sudan.

Fighting erupted in South Sudan again this month; already, hundreds have been killed. Men like Justin and Kenyi are the key to changing the heart of this broken nation. Because they are sold out for Christ they are the unifying factor in country at war with itself. Pray for the Gospel to go forth with power and authority—here and there!
